

The MarketsWALL STREET TRADING SLOW AND UNCERTAIN

(By Special Wire to Evening Herald.)
New York, May 13.—The market closed easy today. Speculation was sluggish and uncertain until weakness of several stocks forced a heavier tone. Pressure against the coalers and the steady fall in Canadian Pacific induced short selling and prices gave way fractionally toward the end. Closing prices on the more important stocks were:
Amalgamated, 72 5-8.
Sugar, 16.
Aetna, 95 1-4.
Reading, 164 3-4.
Southern Pacific, 93.
Union Pacific, 153 5-8.
Steel, 59 1-8.
Steel, preferred, 108 2-4.

Chicago Grain

Chicago, May 13.—Wheat sagged today, influenced by reports that the growth of the winter crop in the southwest was so far advanced that but little damage need be expected. There were also advices that spring wheat seeding was about complete and that despite contrary predictions the increase would be virtually normal. Prices opened 1-4c off to 1-4c up and then gradually declined all around. The close was from 3-8c to 3-4c above last night.

Argentine rains and Liverpool strength brought about only a slight temporary advance in corn. The market became easy with wheat and was also affected by the seasonal progress of domestic planting. Quotations started 1-8c lower to 1-8c 1-4c higher, and later fell to beneath last night's level. The close was steady, 1-3c off to 1-4c up compared with last night.

Bears had the advantage in the oats crowd. Excellent crop prospects made selling orders the rule.

Packers unloaded provisions. First transits were a shade to 7 1/2c down and there was a subsequent further drop.
